

The platform and steps are completed, and the baptismal font is back in its place. Light areas on the walls are repairs to the plaster.

Painting has begun over the high altar. The main altar is back in its place.

